

Press Release European Excellence Awards 2009

Brussels, May 26th, 2009

Application material for the European Excellence Awards 2009 now available

The application material for the European Excellence Awards 2009 is now available online at www.excellence-awards.eu. The award competition honours outstanding achievements in PR and communications across Europe and is hosted by the international professional magazine Communication Director. PR practitioners from organisations and consultancies are invited to nominate their projects across fifty-six distinct categories until the deadline of October 9th, 2009.

A jury of thirty communications experts, with a wide variety of experience and perspectives on the communications and public relations industry, will decide on the winners in a two-step jury process. The award winners will be announced and celebrated in a festive ceremony at The Grand Hotel Wien, in Vienna, Austria on December 10th.

Hosted for the first time in 2007, the award competition received 1,100 applications last year. In December 2008, 400 leading figures from the fields of communication and public relations gathered in Budapest for the ceremony, which honoured the finest communications efforts of the past year across all industries and regions in Europe.

Application forms, and more details about applying, can be found online at:
